UNIVERSITY OF DENVER
ALUMNI RELATIONS
DEAR ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Historically rich. Culturally diverse. Environmentally magnificent. For decades, the Caribbean’s largest island—roughly 90 miles away from U.S. soil—has been but a mystery, perceived through secondhand sources and beyond the grasp of American travelers.

Embark on a captivating tour of Cuban culture and history, designed to broaden your understanding of a country that has long been inaccessible. Discover a nation of sheer contradictions molded by a turbulent past. Here, time seems to have come to a standstill as you watch vintage 1950s-era automobiles drive past preserved Spanish colonial architecture along cobbled streets. As a hub for economic and political heritage, Havana presents an ideal setting to engage with local citizens and uncover new perspectives. Gain insight into the country’s thriving arts community through discussions with independent artists and visits to performing arts schools and studios. Just beyond the spirited capital, fertile tobacco and sugar cane fields permeate the countryside revealing a glimpse into rural Cuban life. Along the southern coastline, lies the beautifully-preserved colonial cities of Trinidad and Cienfuegos—both UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

This exclusive opportunity to explore Cuba is organized and operated by Go Next, Inc., who has been issued a People-to-People license by the U.S Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) that authorizes registered travelers of the educational exchange program to visit Cuba. Go Next invites you to personally experience the people, culture, landscape and architecture of this distinct Caribbean nation on a week-long journey developed for University of Denver alumni.

With an intimate group of only 25 travelers, share enriching activities that illuminate the realities of Cuban citizens and provide an ideal gateway into their daily lives. Through informative and educational People-to-People exchanges, uncover Cuba’s sheer beauty, paradoxes and remarkable intrigue on this unforgettable adventure. Space is limited, so sign up now. Don’t miss this unique opportunity to unravel the mysteries of a fascinating country through its most candid, inspiring source—its people.

Sincerely,

Hallie Lorimer
Sr. Director of Alumni Programs

WHAT IS A “PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE” EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE?

A People-to-People educational exchange allows U.S. citizens the opportunity to visit Cuba in order to engage with its citizens and share diverse, cultural experiences. Through a special People-to-People license issued to Go Next, Inc. by the U.S. Department of the Treasury, you can experience this enthralling island firsthand and immerse yourself in a powerful cultural exchange. This unique travel initiative redefines the scope of a typical vacation getaway by bringing meaningful interactions with real, local people to the forefront. With a comprehensive itinerary focused on crafting educational opportunities and facilitating genuine cross-cultural connections, no time will be available for independent excursions. Open the door to this multifaceted, isolated nation and strengthen your global awareness on this extraordinary People-to-People journey.
DAY 1 DEPART FOR CUBA
Depart from Miami International Airport on your charter flight to Havana and upon arrival, transfer to your hotel. Begin your unforgettable journey in Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Pay a visit to a used booksellers market where you’ll have the chance to meet with independent entrepreneurs and private Cuban booksellers. Learn about the culture and impact of literature in Cuban society. (L, D) Parque Central hotel

DAY 2 HAVANA
In the morning, visit the district of Alamar in the outskirts of Havana. Established as a social housing project in the 1970s, today the Soviet-style pre-fabricated concrete apartment blocks are home to thousands of Cubans. Meet with local residents and learn about the process of obtaining housing in Cuba and the tradition of multigenerational living arrangements. Continue to the fishing village of Cojimar, the setting for Ernest Hemingway’s book The Old Man and the Sea, and visit Finca Vigia, the mansion where Hemingway lived from 1939 until 1960. Next, discover the Callejon de Hamel in central Havana where you will see local street art and music, and learn about the impact of arts in Cuban society. (B, L) Parque Central hotel

DAY 3 HAVANA
Travel west to visit Las Terrazas, a small community and nature reserve, as well as a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve. Founded shortly after the Cuban Revolution in 1959 as a self-sustaining community, today the area is home to much of Cuba’s tobacco farming. Visit the Clinica Las Terrazas, a local medical clinic, and get a rare glimpse into rural Cuba’s medical services, remedies and philosophies. Continue to Café Maria where the owner and her family welcome visitors to sample coffee and discover the role of coffee in Cuba’s culture. See the art studio of independent artist Lester Campa in his private studio and hear about his unique paper recycling process. On the journey back to Havana, visit the home of ceramicist and painter, Jose Fuster, “The Picasso of the Caribbean.” (B, L) Parque Central hotel

DAY 4 CIENFUEGOS/TRINIDAD
Drive south to Cienfuegos, known as the Pearl of the South, passing by small towns and villages along Cuba’s autopista, or highway. Explore the main square and Punto Gordo Peninsula, before meeting with the faculty, staff and students of the Beny Moré School of Art. Here, learn about how students are trained in visual and musical arts at the institution and have the opportunity to discuss Cuban and American music and arts education. A native of Cienfuegos, Beny Moré, from whom the school takes its name, is recognized as Cuba’s most famous singer. Also visit a ration store where you will meet the store manager who will explain rationing, the two currency system and the difference between Ration Stores, Cuban Peso Stores and CUC stores. Continue to Trinidad, a charming old Spanish colonial town and UNESCO World Heritage Site. (B, D) Parque Central hotel

*In the event a school or other venue is closed, an alternate People-to-People educational exchange will be scheduled.

DAY 5 TRINIDAD
Visit the Casa de la Alfarero, a pottery house founded and operated by the Santander family for generations. Discover the process of ceramic production and have the unique opportunity to create a piece of your own. Continuing on, tour one of Trinidad’s casas particulares, or bed and breakfasts, where you will learn about this new entrepreneurial opportunity for Cubans, a market typically operated by the state. Next, see the Templo de Yemaya, where a Santeria practitioner will share and explain the basic principles of the religion, before lunch at the Hacienda de Manda Izua, located in the heart of the Valley de los Ingenios, a series of valleys once known as a center for sugar production. Built in the late 1700s, the mansion features an exhibition of paintings depicting the lives of slaves on sugar plantations. Then tour a local Cuban maternity home, and discuss with staff members the medical services provided to expectant mothers. Enjoy dinner in a private home known as a paladar, where you can meet with a multigenerational family and experience a bit of local daily life. Following dinner, you may visit either Casa de la Musica or Casa de la Trova, a community gathering where locals from all walks of life come to hear music and meet with friends—an ideal occasion for further engaging with locals to discuss community life in Cuba and the U.S. (B, L, D) Iberostar Grand Hotel

DAY 6 SANTA CLARA/HAVANA
En route to Santa Clara, enjoy a panoramic drive through the picturesque town of Sancti Spiritus, home to Cuba’s oldest church and one of the original seven Cuban cities founded by the Spanish. Arrive in Santa Clara, where lunch will be served at the Los Caneyes Hotel, followed by a visit to the Santa Clara Music and Performing Arts School. Enjoy dance, theater and music performances by the students and learn about the role and impact of the performing arts in Cuban life and its influence on education. Time permitting; you will make a stop at the Museum and Mausoleum of Che Guevara before returning to Havana. (B, L, D) Parque Central hotel

DAY 7 HAVANA
Your day starts with a visit to the University of Havana*, Cuba’s oldest university and one of the first to be established in the Americas. Here, you can meet with teachers and administrators, while gaining insight into the Cuban higher-education system. Next, visit an elementary school* and interact with the children while taking part in their English lesson. Gain further insight into the Cuban educational system through discussions with school administrators and teachers. Dinner is at an authentic privately-owned and operated restaurant where you can hear first-hand from the owners about the entrepreneurial climate in Cuba. (B, L, D) Parque Central hotel
