Separate Registration required. For more information or to register visit alumni.du.edu/HOF. The Hall of Fame registration page will open in a separate window.

Law School PALS (Partners at Law) Dinner
6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Sturm College of Law - Ricketson Law Building
2255 E. Evans Ave., Room 412 Denver, CO
PALS (Partners at Law) pairs alumni with students for dinner or brunch to help them learn networking skills in a casual atmosphere. Two alumni are placed at a table with four students to discuss their practice areas, talk about what they wish they had known while they were in law school, and answer any other questions students might have. At the end of the dinner, a designated spokesperson from each table shares what they learned with the rest of the group. This event is very popular with alumni, and we welcome our regional alumni to participate!

Friday, October 15

PARENT/ALUMNI INFORMATION SESSIONS AND LECTURES
Unless otherwise noted - class rooms are located at:
Sturm College of Law
2255 E. Evans Ave.
Denver, CO

Roadmap to a Rewarding Career - 9 a.m.
Room 280
The current job market is very challenging for college students and graduates and most career counselors expect it to be for several more years. Ruth Prochnow, career counselor, will explain what services are available to students and where your student should be in a four-year, career planning schedule. A student and alumni panel will share internship and work experiences and answer questions.

College Student Trends, Tudes, and Issues: What our students are facing, doing, thinking, and beyond - 9 a.m.
Room 270
This presentation will focus on the three major areas of research with college students: use of technology, safety on campus, and college student mental health. Through the use of national research, professional experience, and dialogue, participants will have a better understanding of the challenges facing the college student population nationally and at the University of Denver. Justin Price, Director of Housing and Residential Education.

Navigating Academic Degrees: Academic Performance and Personal Struggles - 10 a.m.
Room 270
This session will provide a road map of how to earn a degree at the University of Denver, what happens when a student hits obstacles with their G.P.A., and how personal challenges influence academic performance. Participants will understand the resources available to students to navigate through the various obstacles they may encounter to successfully arrive at their destination — graduation.

I Hate to Ask, but...When will you be Moving Out? - 10 a.m.
Room 280
As parents, you know how challenging it is to choose a career and find a job. Why doesn’t your student listen to your advice? Mary Michael Hawkins, Director of the DU Career Center, Cindy
Hyman, Associate Director of Alumni Career Programs, and Sue Worden, Career Counselor, will discuss what parents can

Book Discussion – room 259/CAP25

Sex and the Soul: Juggling Sexuality, Spirituality, Romance, and Religion on America's College Campuses.

Today's college students are fascinated by religion but they are also more sexually active than previous generations. How do these young people reconcile their spiritual longings with sexual freedom on campus?

University Chaplain, Rev. Gary Brower, will facilitate a discussion of this thought provoking book.
