DU on the Road

DU on the Road brings the University of Denver from the foothills of the Rockies to a city near you. Throughout the academic year, complimentary cocktail receptions are held in various cities across the country. These gatherings provide a unique opportunity to speak with University leadership about the latest developments at DU while you mingle with fellow alumni, parents and friends of the university. We look forward to reconnecting with you as we travel to your city! Click here to view the upcoming schedule!

Travel with DuVine Adventures

DuVine Adventures is offering two unique travel specials - each with a special discount of $350 per person.

Dolomites Ski Tour - February 5-10, 2012
Providing extraordinary terrain, these incredible mountains have become famous the world over as one of the most beloved areas for winter sports. On this ski safari traverse you’ll enjoy 12 ski areas featuring 1,200 kilometers (746 miles) of prepared pistes that will lead you to discover the breathtaking beauty of the Dolomites. This ski tour offers you the opportunity to explore the Ladin valleys of the Dolomites and their people, as well as discover the traditions and history of these places, all while engaging in the beautiful sport of skiing.

Costa Rica
Active Adventure - February 19-24, 2012
Why just bike when you can raft class IV rapids on the Pacuare River, zip line through the rainforest to the sound of a thundering volcano in the background, hike on a trail of lava rock through Arenal Volcano National Park, surf the famous adrenaline-inducing waves off Guanacaste, kayak around rock islands to a private beach and snorkel the reefs? You can still bike, too, while listening to howler monkeys, toucans, tree frogs, you name it - your own personal “sounds of the forest” live and in concert! Not only a symphony for the ears, the rainforest will become your theater for the week featuring some serious wildlife viewing.

Join us on safari!
The annual movement of wildebeest and other grazing herbivores across the Serengeti Plains is one of the greatest spectacles in the natural world. This 12-day expedition will take you to places with names that ring with excitement: Tarangiri, Ngorongoro Crater, Olduvai Gorge and Serengeti. Trekking with expert naturalist guides in 4x4 Land Cruisers, experience the breathtaking terrain of East Africa, the tapestry of local cultures, and the comforts of deluxe lodges and tented camps.

Mentoring

DU offers alumni the opportunity to connect with students and other alumni to share career-related experiences. If you like the idea of a one-on-one link with a current DU student, email Cindy Hyman about our professional mentoring program. If you prefer something less intensive, please join our Professional Network. To become a member, simply input your contact information into our password-protected database. This allows students and other alumni to communicate with you and ask career-related questions. To register, go to alumni.du.edu.

DU Basketball Tickets

Free tickets to home Pioneer home games are available. Limit of four; first come, first served. Call the Alumni Events Line at 303.871.2777.

ALUMNI IN THE NEWS

Tarr remembered as generous, amicable
Terence Tarr was generous to his friends and displayed his gourmet cooking skills at dinner parties he co-hosted. He loved the opera, enjoyed gardening, rooted avidly for the Denver Broncos and helped breed five generations of Norwegian elkhounds. Read more…

Motz achieved greatness on the field and in the classroom
Early on the morning of September 8, which happened to be his 82nd birthday, Herman Motz collapsed in the bathroom of his Denver home. He was unconscious when the paramedics arrived. They detected no pulse or blood pressure and thought he had suffered a heart attack. Read more…

DU alumni - married for 63 years - star in viral video
DU has its own viral video star: In 2008, Marlow Cowan (MSW ’49) and his wife, Fran, gave an impromptu concert on the piano in the Mayo Clinic atrium in Rochester, Minn., while killing time between medical tests. Read more...

Alumna Michelle Kwan joins Figure Skating Hall of Fame ranks
University of Denver alumna Michelle Kwan (BA international studies ’09), the most decorated figure skater in American history, can add another item to her long list of accomplishments: She’s been elected to the U.S. Figure Skating Hall of Fame class of 2012. Read more...
