50th Reunion

Over 20 graduates from the Class of 1961, along with friends and family, participated in the 2011 50th Reunion festivities on June 3 and 4. Activities included the Emeritus Tea, campus tours, a BBQ dinner and a lunch served at the Fritz Knoebel School of Hospitality Management at the Joy Burns Center. The weekend culminated with alumni walking in undergraduate Commencement at Magness Arena.

Emeritus Tea

On Friday, June 4, nearly 300 alumni and guests participated in the Emeritus Tea at Sturm College of Law, which is hosted annually in honor of all alumni who graduated 50 or more years ago. The Class of 1961 was inducted into the DU Pioneer Alumni Legends (PALs) by fellow members.

Pioneers Turn in Historic Lacrosse Season

Parents, alumni, students and DU fans traveled from around the U.S. and Canada to cheer on the Pioneers as they took on Virginia in the NCAA Men’s Lacrosse Final Four at M & T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Maryland on Saturday, May 28, 2011. ALUMNI IN THE NEWS

Holzer on a mission to learn
Before coming to the University of Denver, Josh Holzer studied off and on at five other institutions. As a member of the Army, he moved frequently and didn’t find a place or subject he enjoyed learning. Read more...

Le has crammed a lot into four years
Don’t mistake Jeannette Le for your stereotypical sorority girl. The 22-year-old, who graduated from DU on June 4, represents the less celebrated side of the Greek system. Read more...

Dual degree graduate Portman thrives on diversity
Joel Portman started his career at DU as a management major. But try as he might, he couldn’t shake the notion that he was learning more about leadership from his extracurricular activities than from his classes. Read more...

Bowen uses PhD to bolster career in international relations
DU international studies Professor Jonathan Adelman describes Nicholas Bowen as a throwback in the very best sense of the word. Most university students enroll to forge a career, prepare to join a think tank or to build upon an existing academic body of work. Bowen simply wanted to absorb as much information as he could.
